Management & Accounting (BBA)
Department of Management

Management at U of T Scarborough is highly sought after because of its modern, innovative and highly practical business programs. Its specialized streams and strategic curricula leave successful graduates prepared for a wide variety of careers in the corporate world. Students will earn high-quality professional management training within the context of a liberal arts degree — ideal for a managerial career. They will study business practices, policies and current issues affecting companies by examining current real-life scenarios.
