SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12
11 am – 3 pm

We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca, and the Mississaugas of the Credit. Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land.

Exhibitions

Doris McCarthy Gallery

11:00 am – 5:00 pm
In the gallery, we are presenting Nostalgia Interrupted, a beautiful and powerful group exhibition that pushes back against the ways that a romanticization of the past erases the experiences of BIPOC communities, and offers space for those stories and memories.

Doris McCarthy Gallery Instructional Centre Vitrines

11:00 am – 1:30 pm
The exhibition Qanuqtuurunnarniq features works by Shuvinai Ashoona, selected for acquisition to the DMG Collection by University of Toronto Inuk Knowledge Keeper and multidisciplinary artist Naulaq LeDrew. Ashoona’s vignettes provide glimpses into life in the North, demonstrating the innovative and resilient qualities of Inuit culture and artistry. Adding further context and personal history to Ashoona’s drawings are related objects from LeDrew’s personal collection, accompanied by audio recordings.
